S.A.F.E. Neighborhoods: Schools Aid Families in Emergencies

John Flynt Preparedness Coordinator for Salt Lake City spoke on the S.A.F.E. neighborhood framework in case of a disaster. S.A.F.E. neighbors assist and relies upon neighbors helping neighbors to assess critical and immediate emergency needs, keep residents informed and reunify families. S.A.F.E. neighborhood is dependent upon the whole community approach. Organization chart was discussed. Just In Time Kits have been placed in each elementary school in Salt Lake. Contents provide guidance and supplies for leadership to function during the anticipated 96 hour time line. The school's responsibility and responses were discussed. This was presented in English and Spanish.
